

THE SEARCH FOR PEACE

We search for peace in our hearts
In the quiet solitude of a moment.
As the turmoil of the day departs,
Peace settles about like a vestment.

We search for peace in our families
All dear to us whether near or far.
In the yard are planted Easter lilies
To remind us what peace and love are.

We search for peace in the world
Giving love, compassion and kindness.
These gifts upon the Earth are unfurled.
The search for peace is timeless.
