

Recommendations, Guidelines, and Notes for videos to be entered in the Search For Peace Film Festival

See the www.searchforpeaceart.org for guidelines for the Art Exhibit.

1. Any original film or video may be entered.
2. Works which assault any particular group, or not supporting the themes of Peace and Non-Violence, will not be accepted and may not be returned.
3. The Festival is Free: There is no charge for entering videos to the Film Festival or for attending the Film Festival.
4. Video Formats: The best formats for YouTube are also convenient for us. See http://www.youtube.com/handbook_popup_produce_upload?pcont=bestformats
5. Longer videos are welcome but are less likely to be shown because of time constraints.
6. We encourage videographers to also show their work at YouTube or other sites, and send us the link to it.
7. To Enter: Please use the ENTRY FORM.
8. We require a physical copy of the video on a CD or DVD. Mail or Deliver CDs or DVDs of your video to the St. Pius X Office, 1280 NW Saltzman Rd., Portland OR 97229, by January 31, 2010, during normal business hours, Monday Through Friday.
9. Clearly label each item delivered with the entrant's NAME, CONTACT information, the TITLE of the video, and attach a completed ENTRY FORM.
10. By submitting your work, you give permission for photos or excerpts of your work and written statements to be used for promoting peace and non-violence.
11. You may enter multiple items.
12. If your entry is shown or exhibited at the Festival or Art Exhibit you may sell copies of it at the exhibit or during the festival, but the organizers are not responsible for misplaced copies, will not act as cashiers and do not require a commission.
13. The organizers and St. Pius X Parish will make every effort to protect the exhibited works but artists and videographers must be aware their works are entered and displayed at their own risk.
14. The specific times of day for the sessions of the Film Festival will be available in January.
15. The names of the videos in the Festival and the schedule of showings will be announced by February 21.
16. Email info@searchforpeaceart.org if you have questions.
